Resubmission of Amendment and Response

Sir,

This amendment was previously filed on May 4, 2004. In accordance to a telephone conversation received from the office the amendment is resubmitted due to the informality that claims 1-72, canceled several years ago, were not shown as canceled in the original claims listing.

Applicant hereby resubmits the amendment with the required information and hopes that with the information provided herein the office will now be able to process the amendment.

The original submission contained a petition for extension time for response under rule 1.136. Applicant therefore believes that no fee is due in connection with this submission. If this understanding is incorrect, please charge any fee, or credit any overpaid amount, to Deposit Account No. 501392.

Respectfully submitted

Shalom W.
